GOLD MEDAL ROSES

for 1929

E. G. HILL
JOANNA HILL
TALISMAN

BESIDES these novelties we shall have a full line of all the outstanding forcing varieties now demanded by American rose growers, as well as the most promising recent European introductions, among which we are particularly pleased with Dame Edith Helen, Mevrouw G. A. Van Rossem, and Lady Margaret Stewart.

If you are not on our mailing list to receive our 1929 catalogue, be sure to write for one.

WE OFFER you Roses that have been built up to a standard, not down to a price.

E. G. HILL

"E. G. Hill." In offering this immense Rose to the trade, we claim that it is the largest red forcing variety of true Hybrid Tea character yet produced. It is a cross between two selected red seedlings. "E. G. Hill" has been given the severest tests in our forcing houses the past four years.

The flower is dazzling scarlet, shading to a deeper pure red as it develops, but never showing purple. It produces long stems naturally and the foliage develops freely and is of fine color. A great producer and an unusually good keeper, as was shown when it was up for exhibition. The bud is unsurpassed in beauty—except by the open flower, which is a wonder!

"Joanna Hill." This wonderful new yellow Rose made its debut as a cut-flower in Pittsburgh, Cleveland, and Chicago last winter, and was pronounced, by wholesalers and retailers as well, the best yellow Rose yet introduced.

"Joanna Hill" is a seedling of Amelia Gude and Mme. Butterfly. The blooms are clear yellow, deepening at the center, and hold their color under artificial light. It produces strong stems without pinching and can be grown at low cost and sold at a more reasonable price than Souv. de Claudius Pernet. The production exceeded that of any other variety grown in our greenhouses the past season. Flower Show patrons have been most profuse in expressing their delight with this Rose.

Talisman

A seedling of Ophelia and Souv. de Claudius Pernet originated by The Montgomery Company, at Hadley, Mass. "Like a choice, rare cameo, this new seedling Rose stands out in rich and distinctive relief against any background." Talisman is already so well known that it needs no further comment.

We are assisting The Montgomery Company in the dissemination of this Rose.
